
CLIENT WAIVER

I understand that colouring services can have varying results based on each individual's hair.

I understand that it is extremely important that I make my stylist aware of any and all other processes I have used on my hair in the past.

I understand that any information I withhold regarding my previous processes will increase my chances of damage and the potential for unpredictable chemical reactions.

I understand that chemical processes may cause some damage to the integrity of the hair.

I understand that stylists at CO TO GO have been trained in the service technique and that they will do their absolute best to create the best results.

I have read and understand CO TO GO's cancellation policy and the re-do policy.
